

Advanced Gang Investigations

February 9–11, 2010 • Oklahoma City, Oklahoma

Who Should Attend

This training is being offered to law enforcement professionals from Oklahoma. Law enforcement officers from this state will be given priority for attendance. This workshop will provide advanced gang training to:

- Street gang investigators, security threat group investigators, and intelligence analysts currently assigned to gang investigations, with two to four years of experience in gang investigations.

Registration

There is no registration fee. This workshop is made possible through funding from the Bureau of Justice Assistance (BJA), Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice. Class size is limited to 35 attendees on a first-come, first-served basis. Register early to reserve your space. Register online at <http://www.iir.com/registration/agi.cfm>.

Please limit to one officer from each agency. The deadline for registration is Wednesday, January 20, 2010. Once your registration is received and accepted, a staff member from the Institute for Intergovernmental Research® (IIR) will e-mail or fax a confirmation memo. For security reasons, only those individuals having a confirmed advance registration will be admitted to the workshop, and no registrations will be accepted at the door. Law enforcement credentials will be required at check-in. Workshop check-in will begin at 7:30 a.m. on January 9. The workshop schedule is 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. on January 9–11.
